Our normal winter storage season is mid October through April 30. If you would like to bring it in earlier, or stay later, you will be charged the prorated storage fee for that portion of the month(s) that you actually use. All winter storage customers must pay at least for the 6-month period of November 01 through April 30, regardless of actual time used. Your one month deposit for your winter storage will be deducted from your total winter storage fees. Please let us know a few days before you bring your unit in for winter storage so we can make arrangements to get it inside as soon as possible.

If you do not bring your unit in for storage by November 1st or make other arrangements with us, your reservation will be cancelled and you will loose your deposit.

I understand that should I decide not to store my unit, my one month deposit is non-refundable.
